WISE (World Infrastructure Service & Environment) has implemented a digital system to monitor and manage infrastructure assets. This system allows for efficient management of utilities, reducing maintenance costs and improving service delivery. The system has been implemented in various cities, leading to increased public satisfaction and reduced operational costs. WISE aims to expand its services to cover all urban areas, ensuring sustainable and efficient infrastructure management.